Signals adding to hazard at crossing

Traffic is backing up behind you, prodding you with auto horns and angry glances. Crossing barriers are down, with warning lights flashing, but no train is in sight. What do you do?

From 7 a.m. to nearly 5 p.m. Thursday, many motorists risked their lives and drove around the West Pontoon Road crossing gates, which have been operating oddly in recent weeks and created severe congestion and hazards Thursday until being repaired.

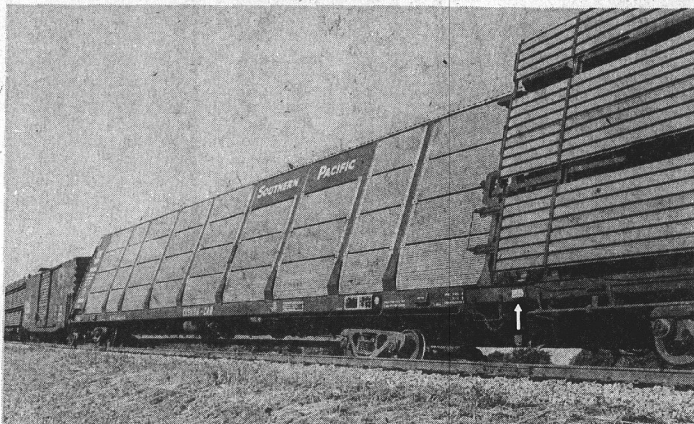

Many residents are unhappy with the situation, recalling numerous past problems and the tragic deaths of local residents on the tracks immediately west of the busy Nameoki Road-Pontoon Road intersection.

Municipal officials, the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and others are seeking a remedy and are contacting the Illinois Commerce Commission and Illinois Railroad Grade Crossing Safety Council.

The ICC chief railroad engineer can be addressed at 527 E. Capitol Ave., Springfield, Ill. 62706. His telephone number is 217-782-7660.

Even school buses were among the vehicles seen swinging wide to pass the Rail woes widening

Cutbacks in railroad operations in this metropolitan area continued to mount today with elimination of all Amtrak passenger train service to and from St. Louis because of a sympathy strike of approximately 1,700 Terminal Railroad Association workers.

The possibility of a return to work depends upon the outcome of a hearing in U.S. District Judge Edward L. Filippine's court in St. Louis today on a petition by the Terminal for a preliminary injunction. The walkout began Wednesday when 300 to 400 Terminal railway clerks set up picket lines in sympathy with striking clerks of the Norfolk & Western Railroad. Terminal's 1,400 other employees refused to cross the picket line, virtually shutting down all Terminal Railroad operations. Terminal Railroad is responsible for most switching operations in the Illinois-Missouri area, and has caused hardships in the larger industrial plants that depend upon the Terminal for most of its rail shipping operations.

Active role by county in state probe

Despite suspicion to the contrary, Madison County has played an active and cooperative role in the lengthy federal investigation of the sheriff department, State's Attorney Nicholas Byron indicated Friday.

The elected county prosecutor defended the performance of himself and his staff while declining to provide any specific information on "what we've done, what we're doing and what we plan to do."

He stressed that critics of the state's attorney's office lack accurate information on the past, present and future activities of the staff because "no one has been told."

Conceding that the passage of time is of vital interest to the public regarding investigations of governmental employees' conduct, Byron seems convinced that citizens will look favorably on federal-state-county prosecutorial efforts once they have seen the full results.

Statutes of limitations on alleged misdeeds vary from three years to as much as six years or as little as 18 months, depending on the circumstances of crimes and arrests, Byron told the Press-Record. He indicates that precipitous action at the county level could confuse and hamper on-going investigations and prosecutions by other agencies, such as the office of the federal attorney for the Illinois southern district, based in Springfield.

Byron adds that he receives considerable information that the average person cannot obtain, and he reiterates that the public should be patient.

Initial indictments in a multi-year federal probe of government in this region named three former Madison policemen. Tried and convicted this summer, they are to be sentenced Friday morning.

Whether additional indictments are pending has not been revealed by U.S. Attorney Gerald Fines, but Fines has asserted that the investigation is continuing.

Newsmakers

If one had to name the five most active citizen volunteers in Madison County, almost any list would include Leo H. Konzen, an attorney residing in Granite City.

Fireless, objective, knowledgeable, courteous, goal-oriented and diplomatic—those are among the adjectives voiced by associates in discussing his contributions.

Konzen again is making news, having just been elected chairman of the St.

Hit-run car kills GC man

Daniel Lee House, 31, of Rural Route One, Granite City, was fatally injured by a hit and run driver early Saturday morning while walking along Highway 162 near Illinois Route 111.

Madison County Sheriff's deputies, while on routine patrol, found the body in a ditch at 5:43 a.m. Saturday.

Mr. House was pronounced dead at the scene by Dick Misch, assistant Madison County coroner. Mr. House died of massive head, leg and internal injuries, authorities said.

Formerly from Bonne Terre, Mo., he had lived here six years and worked as a carpenter for Ken Lewis Contractor, his brother-in-law.

He is survived by seven sisters: Mrs. Golda Harris and Mrs. Ken (Patsy) Lewis, both of Granite City; Mrs. Brenda Shands

New water company office

The Granite City district of the Illinois American Water Co., plans to construct a new building, it was announced Friday by Robert L. Jackson, district manager of the utility.

The new building will be constructed on the northeast corner of 18th Street and Edison Avenue in a joint development by

G. H. Sternberg Sr. and Ralph A. Morris II.

The building will contain approximately 3,100 square feet of office space for customer service and engineering.

The new facilities will be completed by early 1979, and will provide adequate room for the utility's present and future operations, Jackson said.

Customer parking and a drive-up window are among features planned to better accommodate utility customers.

The water company presently is located at 1877 Delmar in downtown Granite City, and has been at that location for the past 15 years.

A pre-Christmas referendum, when voters were in a generous, holiday mood, provided a 4-1 victory for an ice skating rink proposal years ago. And another December election may be the key to a new swimming pool and other projects in the Granite City Park District this year.

The extent of proposed improvements to be undertaken in Granite City parks—including construction of a new $1.2 million swimming pool—is to be determined by Park Board members in an informal meeting at the Wilson Park offices tonight.

Board members expect to decide at that time the full amount of a bond issue needed to finance the improvements and to determine the date of the referendum on the bond issue.

Decisions reached in the meeting tonight are to be acted upon in a regular meeting of the Park Board Wednesday night.

The major improvement proposed for Wilson Park is construction of a "Wave" (Continued on Page 7)

Cassandra Schooley, a 1978 graduate of Granite City High School South, has entered William Woods College as a freshman. William Woods is a private, liberal arts college for women in Fulton, Missouri. Cassandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Schooley of Terrace Lane. Westminster College for men, also in Fulton, and William Woods have a cooperative program which allows students to take advantage of course offerings on both campuses. Classes began Aug. 31 amid the annual sorority rush on the William Woods campus. The curriculum leads to bachelor of arts and science degrees in over 40 major disciplines and the bachelor of fine arts degree in art and theater arts. New programs include computer science, dance, accounting, Broadway semester, para-legal studies, and fashion merchandising.

RECREATIONAL FACILITIES planned for immediate development in the Horseshoe Lake State Park are shown in this Illinois Department of Conservation map. It is hoped portions of the lake can be in public use in about one year with boating (up to 10 horsepower motors), sailboating, hiking, bank fishing, hunting and picnic facilities.

The chart shows proposed day use areas (darkest shade), wildlife areas on the island, boat access at the upper right, and the area to be leased to farmers (striped area), until funds are available to further develop them.

New indemnity coverage for GC police approved

Noting that immediate action was necessary to provide indemnity coverage for the police department, the Granite City Council last week approved a new policy contract with the Lincoln Insurance Co. for coverage up to a maximum of $300,000.

The new contract was recommended by Assistant City Attorney Irvin Slate Jr. after the Northeastern Insurance Co. which has been carrying the indemnity coverage notified the city it planned to cancel the coverage as of Sept. 21.

City Clerk Robert Stevens told the aldermen the cancellation apparently resulted from the city's refusal to pre-pay investigative costs under deductible terms of the policy.

Slate noted in his recommendation that the Lincoln policy terms appeared better than those offered by Northeastern since its maximum coverage is extended at $300,000 compared to a $50,000 maximum in the cancelled insurance.

The premium on the new policy will be $20,650 annually compared to $13,304 for the Northeastern coverage.

Council members referred to the council's police committee a request for a license to operate a penny arcade at 1200 Niedringhaus Ave. The request was made by Luis Ybarra and Steve Donaldson in a letter noting that the arcade would have pinball games, three pool tables and six football games.

Acting on a recommendation by Joe Lucido, chairman of the Granite City Home Rehabilitation Committee, the council accepted a bid of $24,100 for purchase of the house at 2605 Center St., which was rehabilitated under the city program to remodel and redecorate homes that otherwise might be condemned and therefore taken off the tax books.

The bid for the house, the highest of the two received by the council, was made by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dahm.

The aldermen approved a request by George Teller, assistant chief of police, for expense allotments of $200 each for two officers to attend the annual meeting of the Illinois Policemen's Benevolent and Protective Association.

Lt. Michael Devine and Patrolman Raymond Ridge will attend the meeting Oct. 1-3 at Rockford, Ill.

The resignation of Murel L. Spengler, city painter, was accepted. Spengler announced his resignation in a letter to the aldermen. No reason was given.

In a related personnel matter, the council concurred in a recommendation by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners that Leonard Wilson Jr. be hired as of Sept. 1 to fill a vacancy on the fire department.

The aldermen also approved a motion to employ Philip Green as an employee of the street department.

Burial was in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

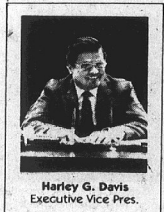

Rites held for Mrs. Bristol

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. today, Sept. 25, at a Granite City funeral home for Mrs. Bessie A. Bristol, 73, of 1812 Fifth St., Madison.

She died at 6:25 a.m. Thursday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Survivors include her husband, Shirley Bristol; one daughter, Mrs. Eileen Steel; three brothers, Everett, Edward and Ezra Hurt; a sister, Mrs. Jessie Gibson and a grandson.

Will you overpay your taxes again this year?

You will, unless you set aside tax-deductible dollars this year - and in future years - and let earnings accumulate tax free, until you use them. And, you can if you qualify for a retirement plan of your own.

If you work and are not covered by a retirement plan, you may qualify to start your own Individual Retirement Account (IRA). Your contributions - made every year, or only those years you wish - are deductible from your taxable earned income.

If you are married and your spouse does not work, you may qualify to establish two separate IRAs - one for each of you - into which an even larger total annual tax-deductible contribution may be made.

A Rollover IRA also may be used, under certain circumstances, to tax shelter benefit payments you receive from an employer's retirement plan, until you use them. You may qualify if you leave one job to take another, retire, or if your retirement plan is terminated by your employer.

DON'T OVERPAY YOUR TAXES AGAIN THIS YEAR!

If you think you may qualify for the tax benefits of an Individual Retirement Account, visit Harley Davis at First Bank. Together, you will explore your personal circumstances and determine the best course of action for you.

Madison school levy drops

A 1978 tax levy of $671,846 — down $39,051 below that of last year — was approved by the Madison Board of Education Thursday night following a public hearing on a budget of $4,846,365 for the 1978-79 school year.

The new budget total was approved by the School Board without change from the tentative budget posted for public inspection a month ago. It compares with an overall appropriation bill of $4,240,312 adopted a year ago, but despite the increase is not expected to result in an increase in the tax rate.

A 1978 tax rate for bills to be collected next year was projected by John Palchiff, school superintendent, at $3.22 per $100 assessed valuation on the basis of an anticipated assessed valuation of $20,787,320.

The projected rate is identical to that of the 1978 year which was used for tax collections this summer. The projected rates under the new tax levy, and amounts levied include:

Educational fund, $332,597, rate of $1.60 per $100 assessed valuation; building fund $77,952, rate 37.5 cents; bonds and interest $127,634, rate 61.4 cents; transportation $24,944, rate 12 cents; retirement fund $65,000, rate 40.9 cents; special education $8,314, rate 4 cents; fire and safety code $10,393, rate 5 cents; and liability insurance $4,988, rate 2.4 cents.

The new budget is an increase of $668,583 over the 1977-78 budget of $4,240,312. Palchiff said the increases were due to salaries, fixed charges, operations and transportation along with inflationary rises in the cost of materials, supplies and equipment.

Bulk of the budget increase was in the educational fund set at $3,830,915, up from last year's appropriation of $3,263,562. Salary increases of faculty and administrators is reflected in this fund, he said.

The building fund budget has been set at $418,000, up from last year's budget of $374,500.

The district projects revenue next year of $3,174,696 in the educational fund which also has a balance of $784,993. This will make total funds available of $3,959,599 in the educational fund.

In the building fund, projected revenue of $1,151,194 and a balance of $234,628 will provide total available funds of $1,385,822, or $2,217 less than budget expenditures of $148,000.

In other budget accounts, the transportation cost is projected at $125,300, up from $110,750 last year, and payments to the company are on strike and the trains are being manned by supervisory personnel. The tank car is used for combustible liquids and could have been loaded when the derailment occurred. The train had 108 cars.

Balanced budget at BAC—$8 million

A budget of $8,446,994 was adopted for Belleville Area College at the September Board of Trustees meeting on Thursday evening.

The 1978-79 budget includes $7,295,305 for the educational fund and $1,151,689 for the building and maintenance fund. The figures indicate that the college will operate with a balanced budget.

The BAC board has insisted that the college not move into deficit spending.

"Some severe budget cuts were required from the original proposed budget, after anticipated local tax revenues were lessened because of a decreased tax multiplier in some counties of our 2,000-square-mile district," Dr. William R. Keel, president of the college said.

He noted that no educational programs were directly affected in the cutback, although, he said, "badly needed equipment purchases and capital outlay have had to be delayed."

"The programs at BAC have already suffered, and other needed programs have not been initiated because of a lack of start-up funds," Dr. Keel said.

"There is no 'fat' left in our budget, and any further cuts will almost surely have a devastating effect on our operations."

Gun safety 'Let petitioners cast course to begin not the first stone . . '

The Granite City Park District will again offer a gun safety course beginning Oct. 16. The course will teach the basics of guns and their safe use in hunting and target sports. It is designed as a father-son experience and a requirement for anyone under 16 years of age to obtain a hunting license. Members of the "Field and Stream Club" who have qualified to teach such a course will be the instructors. The sessions will last for three hours each night and will be held on Oct. 16, 22 and 30 from 6 to 9 p.m. An examination will be given on the last night of instruction. It is required that the test be passed before a license and be issued. The class will be limited to 30 persons and is offered free. Registration is being taken at the Wilson Park Office, Benton and Oregon streets. This may also be done by calling 877-3699.

The state Republican chairman, Don Adams, lashed out Thursday against the principal critic of "Thompson proposition" petitions which seek to have a vote Nov. 7 on Illinois tax and spending ceilings. The referendum attempt is backed by Gov. James R. Thompson (R).

State Rep. Dave Robinson, Democrat, in seeking re-election filed petitions that also are subject to criticism, Adams said, commenting, "They are filled with obscenities, names of unregistered voters, minors and non-residents of the 50th District."

"Robinson apparently forgot the warning to 'people who live in glass houses.'"

"Unfortunately, the time for filing objections in the normal manner has expired. But Robinson has a lot to answer for."

Adams, former vice-chairman of the State Board of Elections, distributed photocopies of all of Robinson's petitions, and referred to allegedly faulty signatures line by line.

"Some of the irregularities include:—'A petition signed by 15 persons, some apparently minors, on which two persons listed their addresses as 'somewhere,' one put 'the one I live in' in the city column and 'state of drunkenness' under the county and state column, and a third used four-letter obscenities after a fictitious obscene name."

"A name giving Robinson's own address of 1401 E. Lake Drive which the county election office attests is not that of a registered voter."

"A spot check of 13 names showed six—45 percent—not in any city directory, telephone book, or the registered voter list."

"A spot check of 47 names showed 20 do not appear to be registered at the address given. In objecting to the Thompson proposition petitions, Robinson asserted that signers must be registered at the address given. If that is so, another 42 percent of his signatures, including those of his father and mother, are invalid."

"Some signers gave addresses in Morgan, Logan, Macoupin and Marion counties—none of which are in the 50th—yet Robinson swore that these signers were voters in the 50th District."

Adams charged that objections raised by Robinson to the Thompson petitions were "more for publicity purposes than for the purpose of preserving the petition process."

Charge driver after wheels throw rocks

Tully W. Fowler, 18, of 2408 Terminal Ave., was charged with reckless conduct, criminal damage to property and battery after incident at the Weather Vane ice cream shop, 23rd Street and Washington Avenue at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday in which a car spun its tires in the parking lot, spraying rocks and gravel on the building and people standing in line to get ice cream.

Witnesses told police the auto had been in the lot racing its engine and driving around the lot until a girl joined the young man who was driving the vehicle.

The auto then sped away, spinning its tires, and gravel thrown from the tires broke two windows and struck two young women in line in front of the building.

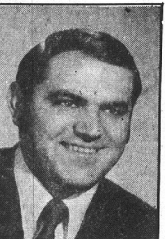

One suffered several bumps on her head and the other had her eyeglasses scratched.

Witnesses identified the young woman who got into the car and officers went to her home where they found the car and arrested Fowler, it was reported.

He was released at 11:20 p.m. Wednesday on a $400 cash bond.

GC man shot, in serious condition

David K. Kissel, 25, of 1728 near Cleveland Blvd., is recuperating in St. Elizabeth Hospital after having been shot in the jaw at a friend's apartment at 5:45 p.m. Saturday.

Police say they have learned from Kissel that he was watching the apartment at 1728 Cleveland Blvd., Apt. 2 for Richard Tart when a man knocked at the door and asked to come in. Although Tart was at Six Flags over Mid-America, Kissel admitted the man to the apartment.

Other residents of the apartment building say the man was in the apartment for five to 10 minutes before a shot and a scream were heard.

The man then ran from the apartment and Kissel went to the hallway to find help. Police believe Kissel had been in the kitchen getting a glass of water when he was shot.

Powder burns on his shoulder indicate the gun was fired at close range and the bullet struck his jaw, breaking and tearing out quite a bit of his jaw, teeth and skin, police said.

Officers found Kissel lying on the bottom step to the porch of the apartment building holding a towel to his face. He was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Police followed a trail of blood through the porch, to Tart's apartment, and into the kitchen of the apartment. There was evidence the shooting occurred in the kitchen, including blood spots on the kitchen ceiling, officers reported.

Tart was notified at Six Flags of the incident and returned to his apartment where he discovered his .357-magnum pistol, which had been loaded with hollow-point bullets, had been stolen from a shelf in the living room.

Kissel was in serious condition today in the hospital's intensive care unit. Extensive surgery is being planned, it was reported.

Detectives said today that there have been no new developments in the case since Saturday night.

interests and abilities of ice skaters.

The Ice Skating Institute of America concept of recreational skating is closely followed here to insure that the skating is relaxing and enjoyable while, at the same time, providing a different approach to exercising and physical fitness.

The 1978 classes will offer Pre-Alpha, for a beginner who has never skated before, and Alpha, which is for someone who has skated before but has never taken lessons.

The Beta and Gamma are for skaters who have demonstrated advanced proficiency and who can skate backward and forward and do turns.

The Freestyle is for skaters who pass the above three tests and are ready to learn jumps, spins, footwork and the various other movements.

There will be seven classes in this program, and the cost for residents with park ID cards is $3.90; non-residents pay $5.

There will be a total of three sessions during the season, and the first session is set for Oct. 7 through Nov. 18.

The second session will be Dec. 2 through Jan. 13. No classes will be held on Dec. 23.

All three sessions will be held Jan. 20 to March 3, 1979.

All instructional skating classes will be held on Saturdays from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Registration for the first session will take place Sunday, Oct. 1, through Friday, Oct. 6, at the ice rink in Wilson Park.

Stolen auto may be clue in murder case

An auto stolen Aug. 28 from Delbert Winters, 2333 Miracle Ave., and found Wednesday in the Blue Pool west of Alton, may be an important clue in the investigation of the murder of Cecil Ann Critch, 18, Gillespie, whose body was found in that pool Aug. 31.

Mrs. Critch's body was found stabbed, handcuffed and weighted with chains and an anchor in the Blue Pool, on the Illinois State owned by Southern Illinois University.

SIU Police at the Edwardsville campus, have announced the arrest of a 19-year-old male, Ronald P. Janssen of Benld, Ill., on a warrant for St. Clair County alleging arson.

Janssen was arrested by St. Clair County sheriff's deputies. Janssen is being investigated.

Janssen has said he drove Mrs. Critch from Chicago to Madison County about Aug. 28 in the car.

Mrs. Critch's body was found in the head in the Chicago Aug. 31, the same day Mrs. Critch's body was found, authorities alleged.

The same day the auto was burned, a four-wheel-drive Ford Bronco was stolen from Winters. That vehicle was found in the Blue Pool Wednesday as the pool was being drained in a search for clues into Mrs. Critch's murder.

Authorities said the deaths of Mrs. Critch and of Mrs. Scolese appear to have been drug-related. Both were on bond in an alleged $10,000 drug store burglary in Gillespie Aug. 2, during which a large quantity of drugs were taken.

Some of the drugs were traced to Chicago, sources say. Mrs. Critch's body was identified Sept. 5 through dental records and fingerprints.

Not like a frisbee, after all

Man today is watching the birth and evolution of the stars and galaxies, including the one in which he lives. He's using the world's most powerful computer as a sort of miniature universe. Scientists are compressing 200 million years into a few hours of computer time and cutting the staggering distance light travels in 100,000 years to no more than the length of a television screen.

What they see on the screen is more thrilling than "Star Wars," as galaxies collide and gas clouds beget embryonic stars.

This far-out project at NASA's Ames Research Center, Mountain View, Calif., is likely to kick up its own clouds of controversy. The simulated cosmic events hatched by the computer and flashed on the screen threaten to alter traditional ideas of how galaxies form, what shapes they assume and what happens when they collide.

For example, elliptical galaxies were thought to be oblate—that is, shaped like a frisbee. But computer-generated elliptical galaxies at Ames reveal their three-dimensional shape to be prolate—that is, oblong, like a cosmic candy bar.

And now some astronomers even are reporting observations that confirm the computer's discovery, says

Dr. Richard Miller, University of Chicago astronomer. He is teamed with Dr. Bruce Smith, Ames astrophysicist, to head the project.

Pioneering Ames researchers believe that computer simulation of cosmic events is an important factor in better understanding the dynamics of our universe.

Miller and Smith are "commanding" Ames' ILLIAC IV computer to create swirling systems of 100,000 computer points. Each point represents the mass about a million of our suns, to give the simulated galaxy a realistic total mass.

And each point "feels" the gravitational tug of its neighbors and "absorbs" energy from exploding supernova (dying stars). Miller and Smith have developed a detailed computer code to study the formation and dynamics of galaxies. By coupling the code with the computer, they have developed simulation as an approach to explaining some basic astrophysical phenomena.

For instance, they follow up to 120,000 "stars" which are free to move about in a "cube"—a three-dimensional boundary of space created by ILLIAC IV and corresponding to 100,000 light years from edge to edge of the television computer screen.

They can order ILLIAC IV to rotate the cube so they can watch events from every angle. They can view swirling dust clouds from below or peer down at gigantic galactic collisions.

Ames scientists have filmed these computer simulations. The films reveal events which were not anticipated according to traditional astrophysical theories.

For instance, vast congregations of computer-generated stars repeatedly evolve into stable prolate (candy bar) shapes. They are seen to rotate end over end like a football and may be the true shape of elliptical galaxies, formerly believed to have been the shape of a frisbee. Thus the Ames teacher suggests that elliptical or frisbee-shaped galaxies seen through a telescope really are the same prolate bars generated by the computer but seen in distorted projections.

Astronomers view snapshots of galaxies projected onto the sky. They have only one view of the galaxy and only can guess its shape. That's because it would take millions of years to track the galaxy across the sky and view it from a different perspective.

Yet with ILLIAC IV they can "examine" galaxies from every direction and easily visualize their three-dimensional forms.

Miller and Smith expect more changes in theories about the nature and evolution of the universe as the giant computer projects events which occurred at the beginning of time.

"Girl Friends" (PG) — A film notable for the courage of its lady producer as for any brilliance on its own. Claudia Weill, a 31-year-old New Yorker who had produced documentaries and film segments for television stations, thought she had a movie in her, and she did. "Girl Friends" is the story of Susan Weinblatt, an eager young photographer trying to make it big in Manhattan, played by an unknown, Melanie Mayron. She loses her roommate, well-played by Anita Skinner, suffers rejections by editors and endures failing romances. The only "name" in the cast are those of Eli Wallach, as a married rabbi who almost dallies with the photographer, and Vivica Lindfors, as a gallery owner. This film was good enough to be accepted at the Cannes Film Festival, so it may have something going for it.

It isn't 'Oh, Canada'

CHILLWACK — Lights from the Valley (Mushroom) — Canadian rock quintet burst into the American scene last year with the "Dreams, Dreams, Dreams" album, and the current LP looks to be equally good. That smooth lead singer is Bill Henderson, one of the band's founders in Vancouver eight years ago.

"Identification cards are useful in reserving tennis courts, in paying reduced rates at the swimming pool and the ice rink, and in various other activities throughout the year."

Other dates set up for ID cards are as follows:

Vandals damage Chouteau signs

Vandals who have been damaging and stealing signs in the Mitchell area have led to Chouteau Township Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks asking the Madison County Sheriff's Department for more patrol cars and a closer watch on the activities of youths in the area. When the signs stolen in the last few days were the large wooden sign engraved with "Chouteau Township buildings," and having an arrow pointing to the town hall and community center and garage.

Sparks warned youths and parents that efforts to catch the sign thieves will be increased and the township will prosecute any youths found damaging or taking road signs.

Marijuana crackdown near school nabs three youths

Efforts by the Granite City police to crack down on marijuana smoking behind Granite City High School South resulted in three separate arrests Wednesday morning. An officer first noticed five young men smoking what appeared to be marijuana at the rear of the school at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday and the policeman returned to the scene where he found one of the men did not go to school there. Kenneth D. Harris, 20, of 2224 Washington Ave., was charged with possession of cannabis after two marijuana cigarettes allegedly were found in his shirt pocket.

The other four students were sent back to school and Harris was released on $35 cash bond. Fifteen minutes later, police watching the area of State Street and Fehling Road with binoculars saw a 17-year-old boy smoking what appeared to be marijuana. They approached and alleged finding two marijuana cigarettes in a cigarette pack in the grass under his leg.

Timothy A. Elmore, 17, of 2671 E. 27th St., was charged with possession of cannabis. While that arrest was being made, another officer alleged seeing someone smoking what appeared to be marijuana in a car on State Street going toward Fehling Road.

The auto parked at the rear of the school and a 16-year-old boy got out. Officers recognized him from an arrest a week before when the boy allegedly had a felony amount of marijuana in his possession.

Four persons in the car were searched and officers alleged finding a marijuana cigarette in the purse of a 16-year-old girl. She was charged with possession of marijuana and was released at noon to a relative on a notice to appear before juvenile authorities.

Elmore was released at 12:05 p.m. Wednesday after posting $35 cash bond.

10th charge filed

Terry D. Gargac, 28, of 2003 Bryan Ave., has been charged with aggravated battery in an informational document issued by the Madison County state's attorney's office, stemming from a Sept. 9 incident in which Patrolman J. W. Apperson suffered two broken bones in his right hand.

The felony charge of aggravated battery is in addition to earlier charges alleging six counts of resisting a peace officer, two stop sign violations and a stop light violation.

Police alleged they stopped him for earlier traffic violations and he resisted arrest, struggling with officers at the scene of his arrest. A scuffle also allegedly occurred at the police booking window where Apperson's hand was broken. Another officer suffered minor injuries and yet another's shirt was torn.

Bond was set at $100,000 and Gargac was taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Take applications for custodial jobs

Granite City School District will accept applications for custodial employment beginning on Monday, Oct. 2, and continuing through Friday, Oct. 13, with testing to follow in November, according to Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis.

There are no full-time positions open at the present time but there is a need for custodial substitutes, he added. Applications are available at the board of education office, 20th and Adams streets, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday to Friday, Supt. Davis noted.

New lock wall cell is started at Alton

Construction of a new lower guidewall sheet pile cell began last week at Locks and Dam 26, Alton.

The new sheet pile cell will be constructed at the downstream end of the lower guidewall extension and will replace a deteriorated existing cell. Construction is anticipated to be completed within a 90-day period.

During the entire period of construction, vessels will be required to remain away from the construction area and not strike or use the new end cell under construction. No additional lockage restrictions or special lockage procedures are being imposed at present. However, all vessel owners and operators are being directed to initiate whatever measures (e.g., use of bow boat, restricted tow size, etc.) which they consider necessary to insure safe and proper vessel lockage without entering the construction area. Detailed lockage condition information may be obtained on Channel 14 of the marine radio from Locks and Dam 26. Full cooperation of vessel owners and operators is sought in order to safely expedite construction progress with minimal traffic disruption and delay. The main and auxiliary locks at Locks and Dam 26 will be closed between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. on or about Sept. 26 for the purpose of conducting surveys on the structure. It is anticipated that the main lock will be closed for a period of 607 hours during the initial portion of the time period and that the auxiliary lock will be closed 6 to 7 hours during the end of the time period. All vessel operators are to exercise additional caution during the closure period and to adhere to the lockmaster's instructions in order to minimize traffic delays.

South students honored

Principal James Dumont announced today that 24 senior students at Granite City High School South have been named commended students in the 24th annual (1979) National Merit Scholarship Program. This honor recognizes each student's performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test which was administered nationwide to high school juniors in October 1977. Letters of Commendation were presented to Mary P. Klyashoff and Walter F. Ronney.

A total of almost 35,000 commended students throughout the United States are being honored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Students in this group represent the top five percent of more than one million participants in the Merit Program.

Although commended students scored slightly below the level required for Merit Program participants who were named semifinalists and who will continue in the competition for Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1979, each commended student has demonstrated exceptional academic promise, Dumont said.

A spokesman for NMSC said the corporation believes "the high standing of Merit Program Commended students is an attainment that deserves their public recognition, because the nation as well as these students will be benefited by continued development of their talents."

To increase their opportunities for college admission and financial aid, NMSC has offered each commended student an opportunity to have identifying information sent by the corporation to two higher education institutions selected by the student.

In addition, NMSC makes it possible for regionally accredited U.S. colleges and universities to receive home addresses for commended students, on a cost basis, so that an institution may contact any of these promising young men and women directly, the spokesman said.

It is hoped that recognition of the commended students in each year's Merit Program will serve as an encouragement to able youth and will assist them in obtaining whatever information and assistance they may need to pursue their educational plans, Dumont noted.

Persons interested in the rewards and commitments of representing the United States in foreign countries can obtain a free copy of the booklet at the SIUE University Placement Office.

The booklet explains broad opportunities offered in the foreign service through work in politics, communications, economics, administration and consular affairs, according to David R. Van Horn, placement director.

Sample test questions and an application form are included for the required written examination given by the U.S. Department of State and the International Communication Agency at various locations listed.

To qualify, applicants must be 30 years old at the time of the test, a U.S. citizen and in good health. No specific educational level is required, but most successful candidates possess the bachelor's degree. Entry level pay grade even at a salary of $17,215.

$7 billion in 1978 sales by fast-growing Air Products

Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., has just passed a major milestone. Sales have reached $7 billion. This is the first time that sales have exceeded that amount in a fiscal year, which ends for the company on Sept. 30. Based in Allentown, Pa., Air Products and Chemicals operates an industrial gas plant and a disturbance center in Granite City. Fiscal 1978 will be the 28th consecutive year that the company has reported higher sales. In ten-year earnings growth, the company ranks 35th on Fortune magazine's list of the 500 largest industrial companies in the U.S.

Chairman Edward Donley attributes the growth to a policy of reinvestment of earnings and to development of new applications. Worldwide efforts to improve the environment and a growing emphasis on raw material and energy conservation should provide many interesting opportunities for us to continue this growth," he says.

Air Products was founded in 1940 to manufacture equipment to make oxygen and nitrogen from air.

Today, the company is engaged in four main businesses — industrial gases, chemicals, process equipment, and engineering and construction. It has 14,000 employees in nine countries.

Arrest 3 in Venice

Three persons were arrested after police stopped two cars in Venice at 7 p.m. Saturday and were told one woman had intentionally rammed her car into the other vehicle.

Venice police first saw two cars violate the stop sign at Douglas Street and Mercedia Avenue and chased the cars on Mercedia to College Street where one car went wide on the turn and went up onto the curb. The occupants of both vehicles got out and approached each other, as though they were going to fight, police alleged. The three people involved then were questioned.

One woman alleged the man had fired a shot from a gun at her and the man alleged a car was rammed intentionally into the car in which he was riding, causing extensive damage.

Police alleged finding a gun under the driver's seat of the car, Wayne L. "Scoop" Manson, 34, of 623B Salveter St., Venice, was charged with unlawful use of a weapon.

The driver of the car in which Manson was riding, Althea Smith, 28, of the same block, was charged with violating a stop sign.

The driver of the other auto, Jessie "Polie" Manson, 22, of 820 Webster St., Madison, was charged with criminal damage to property, reckless driving and having an expired driver's license. She was held in the Venice Jail while the others were released on bond.

TRESPASS IS ALLEGED
Richard O. Reeves, 45, of 2312 Miracle Ave., was charged with criminal trespass to a motor vehicle after he allegedly entered the auto of Eddie L. Parks, 1530 Seventh St., Madison, at Niedringhaus and Grand avenues at 12:45 a.m. Friday and drove away. Officers found him at the rear of a home in the 2200 block of East 20th Street about 15 minutes later and alleged he had the car keys in his possession. Reeves post $35 bond and was released.

Flees from police; faces three charges

Jerry Stafford, 17, of 2123 Nevada Ave., was charged with criminal trespass to property escape and criminal damage to property after incidents Friday morning at Prather Junior High School, 2300 W. 25th St., and at the Granite City police station. Stafford first was arrested at Prather when he allegedly refused orders from the principal to leave at 8:05 a.m. Friday.

At the police station, he was held in the squad room and at 9:05 a.m., he allegedly ran out the rear door of the squad room and was chased by Detective Kip Pomeroy.

During the escape, the rear door of the squad room was broken. Pomeroy said he chased the youth for some distance and finally found him allegedly hiding in the men's restroom of the Long Branch Tavern.

He was returned to the police department and held in the Granite City Jail.

Men tamper with car, flee scene

A security guard at Granite City Steel noticed two men tampering with a vehicle in the 2000 block of Iowa Street, but the pair fled before he could reach the area, he informed police at 12:45 a.m. Wednesday, Tuesday.

The guard said a vent window was smashed on the 1964 auto and the terminal post was broken in an attempt to remove the battery. The glovebox also had been ransacked. Damage was estimated between $60 and $80.

One man was described as six feet tall, weighing 200 pounds, with brown "frizzy" hair and wearing a white shirt.

The second man was five feet, four inches tall and about 140 pounds. He also was wearing a white shirt and had brown "frizzy" hair, the guard said.

Wood River gallops to victory over Steelers

GRANITE CITY — A mistake. An error. A miscue. They all basically mean the same thing... things didn't go right.

That's the way Friday's game here between Granite City North and East Alton-Wood River went for the Granite City North Steelers. Not much went their way.

Tom Wyrostek's North squad had trouble handling its kicking chores and it cost them dearly. Two mistakes in that area resulted in two Wood River scores enroute to a 24-6 victory for the Oilers.

"Our mistakes are absolutely killing us," said a disheartened Wyrostek. "We work on them and work on them. But it's the coaching staff's responsibility to keep them (the team) from making those mistakes."

THOSE TWO MISTAKES were the only ones North made (save a lone fumble turnover)... that show up in the record books. But Wyrostek said his Steeler squad made several mistakes that won't show up in any records. Missed blocking assignments, missed tackles, mix ups in secondary coverage.

"There are quite a few like that," he said. "It's just the things like that that eat away at a team and keep it from winning."

But Wyrostek again emphasized that he isn't at all displeased with the effort his squad is putting out, despite its 3-0 record.

"I'm sure the effort is there," said Wyrostek. "But the lack of mistakes isn't. It may boil down to a lack of experience, talent, I don't really know."

"What I do know is that it's my responsibility, along with the rest of the coaching staff, to point out their mistakes and why they make them."

NORTH wasn't out-gained by much, despite the lopsided final score. The Oilers gained 138 yards to the Steelers' 126. On the ground, Wood River had 123 to North's 91. Through the air, the Steelers had an edge of 35 to 15 over the Oilers.

But on the scoreboard, Wood River got on first and stayed in front the entire game. The scoring began on a safety by the Oilers in the first quarter.

Then in the second quarter, a bad snap from center for Granite City North on a fourth down punting attempt gave Wood River good field position deep in Steeler territory. A good team would have capitalized on the opponents' mistakes. Wood River did.

DAVID ARMSTRONG scooted across the goal line from the four to give Wood River a touchdown and a 9-0 lead. That didn't last for long. It increased.

Later in the period, Tom Broadway of Wood River was on the receiving end of a 15-yard touchdown pass from Oiler quarterback Mike Maendele and a 17-0 lead after the points after touchdown had been made.

Armstrong was a thorn in the Steelers' sides all night long. He gained a total of 97 yards on 15 carries against the North defense. Was the defense out on the field too long?

"No, I don't think so," said (Continued on Page 13)

Stanley makes 'NFL catch'

Trojans 'Yocumed' to death; fall to fired-up Spartans, 19-6

By PETE HAYES

OF THE PRESS-RECORD
BUSHNELL, Ill. — Nick Jakich sat back in the empty gymnasium at Bushnell-Prairie City High School and sighed as he lit a cigarette.

Then he looked up and shook his head. "Anybody who says they can't play football up here ought to have his head examined," he said.

Jakich should know. He had just watched as his Madison Trojans were beaten (both up and on the scoreboard) by a Bushnell-Prairie City team which came into the game with an 8-3 record. The final score was 19-6.

JAKICH had watched as his quarterback, Carlyn Jackson, was banged up and received a broken finger in his passing hand and a broken bone in his right foot. He'll probably be out for four games.

He also watched as one of his best defensive backs, Clinton Sensibaugh, received a dislocated shoulder in the fourth quarter and had to be taken to a Macomb hospital for treatment. That happened while his number one running back, Earnest Davenport, sat out the entire game with a sprained ankle. However, he should be back for the Trojans' next game.

Compound that with the fact that Madison's pre-season all-state fullback, James Heard, was taking statistics on the sidelines while nursing a dislocated shoulder, and you'll know why Jakich sighed, sat back and lit a cigarette in an empty gym.

"They came to play and we didn't," said Jakich about Bushnell. "That was the main difference... along with Yocum."

YOCUM, Sounds like a name perhaps out of the hills of Tennessee. Sounds big. Sounds mean.

He is. Charlie Yocum is Bushnell's answer to Don Nottingham of the Baltimore Colts. He stands in at fullback at about six feet tall (the program lists him as 5-8... no chance) and weighs about 185 to 190 pounds. He can run. He can catch passes and he can kick. He did all three to Madison Friday.

Yocum carried the ball 12 times for a total of 85 yards, many of which were gained while dragging a Madison defender or two with him.

"He's (Yocum) definitely one of the best high school backs I've ever seen... and that includes all of the bigger schools in the St. Louis area," said Jakich. "He's just the type of fullback who'd fit in very well at, say a Belleville school." BUSHNELL gave notice that it had come with but one objective in mind during its first possession of the game. The Spartans came out and lined up quickly, not even huddling to call the play. Instead, they used audible signals at the line of scrimmage. Not only did they do it on the first down, they did it for the entire series.

"I guess they did it to try and catch us napping," said Jakich. "It may have worked at first, but we got used to it and got lined up quickly." B-PC (Continued on Page 13)

Warrior errors help East

South falls to Lancers

By DOUG IRVIN

For the Press-Record
BELLEVILLE — "We are our own biggest enemies right now," confessed head coach Stan Wojcik of the Warrior football squad. "Last week our problem was penalties... this week it is mental errors."

The Granite City South Warriors lost their second game of the season, this one to the tough team from Belleville East. East hit hard throughout the entire game and set the Warriors back 28-6.

South, with only two minutes gone in the game found themselves with ball control on the East Lancer's 21-yard line in a fourth down and four yard situation. The Warriors set up a field goal and due to a "mental error" Belleville gained control at midfield. Bob Stogemeier downed the ball on his own Warrior 46-yard line after the hike went over his head.

ON THAT DRIVE, the Lancers scored their first of four touchdowns. A 15-yard pass from quarterback Jeff Burkett to John Dexter on a fourth down situation. Conversion kick was good and South was down 7-0 after having an opportunity for an opening minutes lead.

A Warrior punt, then a Lancer punt followed by an interception by the Lancers set up their second touchdown. Mark Hill of Belleville intercepted Jeff Parker's pass and gave East control on the eleven yard line. Five plays later, halfback Lenny Bradley ran it in from inside the one. The kick was good and 14-0 was the score.

RECOVERING another Warrior "mental error" — a fumble — was Belleville. East fell on top of the loose ball in the end zone for a touchdown, with over five minutes left in the half.

The Warriors took advantage of the Lancers when they couldn't move the ball after the third quarter kickoff by the Warriors. With ten minutes to play in the third, South had possession of East's one yard line on first down. Blake "Hondo" Ambuehl, South's replacement QB, tried to run it himself, but failed. Then on second down, fullback Mike Kramer went over the top for six. Ambuehl connected with Lee Huebner for a two point conversion and South had eight points on the board to 21 for East.

EAST wasn't satisfied with a mere 21-8 victory so in the closing seconds of the half game, Burkett scrambled in from the two. After the conversion, three seconds showed on the official clock, and a twenty point win for Belleville East showed on the faces of Belleville's fans.

"We had a couple of bad breaks, but..." commented Wojcik.

He continued, "They (the Warriors) are the craziest bunch of kids I have seen — but I'm happy the way they came back in the second half."

This Friday night, South goes into its homecoming game against Cahokia. Kickoff time is set for 8 p.m.

Salem's Rick Martin and Rick Jones won the "B" Flight with 34, followed by Hopkins and Neil of Alton with 36 and Greg Matich and Todd Burns of South with 37.

The Lost weekend . . .

It was a lost weekend of sorts for Quad City area football teams. All three (Granite City North, South and Madison) lost, as well as the University of Illinois squad, which dropped its third straight. Some of the Quad Cities athletes who gave it all they had for their teams, as well as one athlete who did his best to do one local team in, are pictured.

abandoned the practice after its first possession. Madison had things going pretty much its way throughout the first period and part of the second... between the 20-yard lines, that is. But the Trojans couldn't score, much as they tried. But for the entire game, just as against Quincy Notre Dame, Madison out-gained the opposition. The Trojans got early success from having quarterback Carlyn Jackson roll out to either side of the line and turn the corner, picking up six or seven yards a shot. But Madison couldn't go to the well too many times, at least in Jackie's eyes. "That play's good once in a while," he said. "But if you use it too many times, the defense will be looking for it and shut it down."

COMING INTO the game, Bushnell had been forecast as a passing team. With 10:23 remaining in the first half, the Spartans showed why. On a second down play, Bushnell quarterback Mike Miller faked into the line and let loose with a 60-yard bomb to tight end Kerry King who scampered all the way into the end zone. The point-after-attempt by Yocum was no good, one of the few mistakes he made all night. On the next Madison drive, disaster struck again, this time in the form of a turnover. A Jackson pass over the middle was intercepted by the B-PC defense. That led to a 13-yard scoring pass from Miller to Steve Hensley with 7:36 remaining in the half. Then Madison put on its most effective and consistent drive of the game.

USING SHORT down-and-out passes and his own running ability, Jackson directed the Trojans to the Bushnell 35-yard line. From there, he hit Kenny Stanley with a perfect pass on a third down play as he (Stanley) was falling out of bounds and trying to keep his feet in the end zone at the same time. He did. Touchdown. Bushnell coach Dave Fleer was abundant with praise for Stanley's catch. "That was NFL stuff," he exclaimed. "You just don't see very many players on ANY level who can make a catch like that and stay in bounds for a touchdown. In fact, the B-PC mentor was lavish with praise for the entire Madison team. "They're a very good football team," he said. "But we just wanted this one little more than they did tonight, I guess."

THE SECOND HALF was scoreless, save a one-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, by... you guessed it, Yocum. Afterwards, Jack said that it was obvious his team wasn't mentally prepared for the game. "Our guys weren't fired up at all," he said. "When we went out before the game to warm up and stood around looking at each other while Bushnell was over on the other side whooping it up, I said to myself, 'Uh-oh.'"

The next game for Madison will be Saturday, Sept. 30 at Columbia beginning at 1 p.m. The Trojans record now stands at 1-2.

Rusick, Cougars dominate state tennis tournament

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. — SIUE-Edwardsville's tennis team completely dominated play here Friday and Saturday in the Illinois Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament. So much so, in fact, that after the semifinals were completed yesterday, the tourney was moved to Edwardsville next Thursday because it will be an all-SIU final.

After yesterday's semifinals, SIUE had 98 points, the University of Illinois 43, Illinois State 35, SIU-Carbondale 32, Northwestern 30 and University of Illinois Chicago Circle 15. Yesterday, Juan Farrow of SIUE defeated teammate Raimo Ojala 6-2, 6-1 and Arjun Fernando of SIUE defeated ISU's John Lison 6-1, 6-1.

In doubles competition, Farrow and Fernando beat Jeff

Edwards and Tony Chirost of Illinois 6-2, 6-0 and Granite Cityan Bill Rusick and his teammate Ojala beat Jeff Lubner and Neville Kennedy of SIUC 6-1, 6-2.

The finals will be held Thursday, Sept. 28 at the Cottonwoods Tennis Courts in Edwardsville with the singles starting at 3 p.m. and doubles following immediately after.

GRANITE CITY — "Frank Schwartzkopf played the best game I have ever seen him play," complimented South soccer Coach Gene Baker about Schwartzkopf's efforts in Saturday's second game. South played three games over the weekend — one on Friday and two on Saturday. The Warriors won all three, beating Waterloo-Gibault 8-0, Alton 7-2, and Belleville East 4-0.

Saturday afternoon at Granite City North, the Steelers totally dominated play, used every player on the bench and defeated East St. Louis Assumption 4-0.

SOUTH 4. BELLEVILLE EAST 0. Schwartzkopf and little David Fernandez scored all the goals for the Warriors. Fernandez scored two in the first half — the first one was on a penalty kick. The second came in the second period from just off the corner. His shot went past several East defenders and just by the keeper to give South a two point lead at halftime.

SOUTH 7, ALTON 2. Chris Dunphy, a senior from Alton scored first just over a minute into the game. Fernandez and Fred Schuler put South on top late in the second quarter. Each scored a goal just two minutes apart. Fernandez's was from a penalty kick and Schuler's was assisted by a penalty kick. The Warriors sent a three man wave to kick the penalty shot. The third man, Johnny Prazma, kicked the ball to Schuler, who in turn put in the goal, 2-1 at half.

Phil Beljanski followed by Schuler scored the next two goals for South in the third period and Darrel Jones, of East scored East's second and last goal. Andy Costello, South's keeper, came out of the goal to get the ball, Jones kicked it by Costello and Steve Spencer, a back for the Warriors, came in the goal to block the shot and he missed.

In the fourth period, Fernandez with a chip shot from a penalty kick scored his second goal of the day. Schuler scored another assisted by Beljanski and Randy DeRousse scored South's seventh goal unassisted.

SOUTH 8. WATERLOO-GIBAULT 0. Jeff Tinsley scored first for the Warriors off an assist by Fernandez in Friday's game. Freshman David Pax scored the next two for South. His first was from outside the penalty box and his last went under the keeper's arms and between his legs. Both were assisted by Prazma, 3-0.

Fernandez on a chip shot scored from over 30 yards out to give South a 4-0 lead at halftime. Tinsley scored his second goal just ten minutes into the half. Tinsley was assisted by Danny Long.

Prazma assisted by DeRousse, Schuler unassisted, and Greg White assisted by David Jones scored South's other three goals and sent Waterloo-Gibault home with an 8-0 loss.

"I was real pleased with David and Fred, they both did real nice jobs," said coach Baker. Fernandez scored five goals with one assist for the three games and Schuler tallied four goals from the weekend.

and finished second in the trophy dash.

"We really had some great racing Saturday night. With 55 sprint cars and 44 late model stocks, there were 99 cars in the field, and they really put on a show," track owner Elvir Doolin related. "It was great way to end the season," he added.

Final point standings are being compiled and are expected to be announced later this week, but officials said they were unable to finish the sprint championship Sept. 9, noting it was mathematically impossible for anyone to surpass him in the points race.

Beasley, however, had a harder time, starting the race in the points race with Thompson and then trailing Thompson after the heat races.

Jobs sought for 'willing workers'

Governor James R. Thompson last week called on members of his Council on Jobs and the Economy to work toward a goal of providing "every willing worker in Illinois" with a job.

He also directed the council to help fashion a "re-education for jobs" program to help close gaps which exist between supply and demand in skilled jobs areas.

"There are nearly 400,000 more men and women working in Illinois today than when I took office," Thompson said. "That's a lot, but not nearly enough. The people of Illinois cannot be satisfied until every willing worker has a job."

Thompson said creation of his Jobs Council is one of the first attempts in the nation to bring employers' and employees' together in "a cooperative voluntary effort to do something concrete about generating growth in a state's economy."

He emphasized a need for the council to help in framing new approaches to job development, training and placement programs.

"Despite the hundreds of millions in federal, state and local dollars spent each year in vocational education, in training, in welfare jobs programs and in placement, there remain serious gaps between supply and demand in skilled jobs areas."

"There are thousands employed now whose talents and ambitions are beating against dead-ends. They need to be re-educated for jobs that can lead them somewhere," Thompson said.

The governor said he would like to include in his next budget an incentive mechanism for higher education institutions — incentives to help colleges and community colleges use excess space or revamp existing job programs to re-educate workers for jobs in hard-pressed markets and to bring new workers into those markets.

He asked his "strike force" of business and labor representatives to help state government resolve long-standing problems and issues which can stand as roadblocks to economic growth, such as:

1. What should the state and its local governments do with their tax structures to create additional incentives and stabilize the economic climate to generate new or expanded business and industry operations?
2. What should the state do about unemployment insurance and workmen's compensation to strike the best balance between the needs of people and the costs of these programs?
3. What should be done to help bring labor and management closer together to work out differences over issues in the General Assembly which might have an impact on generating new jobs in our economy?

Initial work experience seen as key step to later hiring

The best way for an unskilled jobseeker to get a job is to take advantage of a local job training program, coupled with work experience in a job setting, according to a new report of the U.S. Department of Labor.

It's the most effective combination, says the report, "Work Experience Perspectives: CETA Program Models." It was prepared for the Employment and Training Administration by experts on job training and employability development.

The report says unskilled and entry-level jobseekers are intensely frustrated by rejection based on "lack of experience," but they also know they cannot get experience until they have had a job.

The 35-page monograph is aimed at helping state and local governments operating manpower programs under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA). It understands the potential of work experience activity as an employability development tool.

It says the impact of work experience can be considerably broadened when coupled with related classroom training, skills training, remedial education, job search skills, counseling or other specialized developmental services.

The report recommends that CETA prime sponsors install programs of actual work experience as part of job training for such segments of the labor force as legal offenders, the physically or mentally handicapped, and school dropouts who are struggling to get jobs.

Title I of CETA defines work experience as a short-term and/or part-time work assignment with a public employer or a private nonprofit group to enhance the employability of individuals who have either never worked or who haven't worked for an extended period of time.

The report describes specific program models from both urban and rural areas that illustrate work experience coupled with job training. These include:

- Work experience coupled with secondary education, targeted for youths and ranging from a five-to-ten-hour "add-on" to full-blown alternative curriculum designs for dropouts; and
- Work experience coupled with specific skills training. Jobseekers being aided include "undereducated underachievers" with many barriers to employment.

Mental health drive in Venice

Six Venice women are going door-to-door during the remainder of this month collecting contributions for mental health, according to Rosemarie Cooper, Bellringer chairman for the drive being conducted by the Illinois Mental Health Association.

As a volunteer agency, the association works on behalf of the mentally and emotionally disturbed to promote mental health. The association is not a state agency and so exists entirely by volunteer contributions such as funds collected in the Bellringer drive.

Mrs. Cooper noted the work is important because one in four families is affected by mental illness. She noted that 75 percent of those who attempt suicide do so because they are depressed.

Bellringer workers in Venice are Mrs. Cooper, Charlotte Dilday, Sharon Maurer, Lola Cicio, Jeanne Spiff, Shirley Foote and Beatrice Wigfall.

Swamp, park exploration

Quad-Cityans may join the Shaw Arboretum (314-772-7600) for a chartered bus trip to the Missouri Bootheel to explore natural features on Sept. 30 and Oct. 1.

Led by John Hawker, naturalist and professor of biology, the group will explore the Mingo Swamp Wildlife Refuge area, a remnant of the diverse Mississippi swamps, Big Oak Tree State Park, which has numerous state and national champion-sized trees; Holly Ridge, a recently-acquired natural area of the Missouri Department of Conservation and Bird Hill, which contains an unusual collection of native beech trees.

The fee, $48 for single occupancy and $44 per person for double occupancy, includes the cost of transportation, motel accommodations and two lunches. A restaurant stop will be made for Saturday dinner and Sunday lunch.

Davonna Fritchley and Gary Arnold are wed

Miss Davonna R. Fritchley and Gary W. Arnold exchanged wedding vows in an evening ceremony on Aug. 26, at the Hillcrest United Pentecostal Church in Belleville.

The Rev. Clara R. Russell officiated at the double ring service at 6 o'clock.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fritchley, 615 St. Clair Ave., Belleville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold, 716 Twenty-sixth St., Granite City.

For her wedding the bride wore a formal length white gown fashioned with long full sleeves set into a fitted bodice featuring a high lace neckline. The full skirt extended into a chapel train and she wore a lace-trimmed melody length veil. Her bouquet was composed of silk carnations, roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Arnold, a sister of the groom. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Velda Lawhorn and Karen Arnold, sisters of the bride and groom respectively, and Junior bridesmaid was Darla Fritchley, a niece of the bride.

They were groomed in floor length powder blue dresses and each attendant carried a bouquet of pink silk roses intermingled with baby's breath. Kelly Fritchley and Joey Lawhorn, a niece and nephew of the bride, served as flower girl and ringbearer. She wore a long frock identical to the adult attendants, and carried a basket of roses and baby's breath.

Attending the groom as best man was Glen Bonds, Joseph Lawhorn, the bride's brother-in-law, David and Danny Fritchley, nephew's of the bride, and Jerry Arnold and Darrell Fritchley, brothers of the bride couple, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was held in the church hall after the ceremony. The newlyweds are residing in Belleville, following a wedding trip to Nashville, Tenn.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL HALL. They were married at the Sorento Methodist Church, Sorento, Ill. Formerly Miss Carla Ann Sugg the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald S. Sugg, Rural Route Two, Sorento, former residents.

Carla Ann Sugg becomes Mrs. Michael Lee Hall

Miss Carla Ann Sugg and Michael Lee Hall were united in marriage on Sept. 10, at the Sorento Methodist Church by the Rev. Virgil Elmore, great uncle of the bride, from Greenville, Ill. The double ring ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock in the evening before an altar decorated with branched candelabra entwined with garlands of greenery and apricot tapers. Apricot and yellow satin bows marked the pews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Sugg, Rural Route Two, Sorento, former residents. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Buddy B. Hall of Pocahontas. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of white organza with princess A-line styling. The bodice was of silk Venice lace and seed pearls with an inset of English lace with cameo design. It featured a high neckline and cardinal sleeves of English lace with pearl trim and ending in a ruffle of embroidered lace. The skirt fell into a chapel length train with a gathered flounce and lace edging at the top and bottom of the flounce.

A Juliet cap of embroidered English lace and seed pearls secured a fingertip veil of silk illusion edged with lace. Her bouquet was a cascade of silk apricot roses, candlelight carnations and baby's breath, yellow star flowers and trailing ivy with apricot satin streamers.

Debra Dillard, of Granite City, served her cousin as matron of honor, and Tina Dick, also a cousin of the bride, from Mount Sterling, was bridesmaid. Their gowns were of apricot chiffon in an A-line style featuring a scoop neckline, capelet collar of small French pleats attached to the dress with a bow and sash on the right shoulder.

Junior bridesmaids were Diana Sugg, sister of the bride, and Debra Hall, sister of the groom. They wore identical gowns of floral print chiffon with yellow background and apricot flowers. The brides were designed with scoop necklines and attached ruffle trim. A cummerbund encircled the waist, and three tiers of ruffles formed the skirt. The attendants carried colonial silk bouquets of apricot roses, natural dry flowers and apricot satin streamers.

Flower girl and ringbearer, cousins of the bride, were Amy and Jeffrey Peterson. The flower girl wore a dress of the same fabric and style similar to those of the junior bridesmaids. She carried a basket of silk yellow roses, natural dry flowers and yellow satin streamers.

All attendants wore headpieces consisting of an apricot bow with a flower in the center, and streamers with small flowers attached at the ends. Dion Maxwell of Freehold, Milford over taffeta with Kenneth Randall, Warren Rinkon, and Lyle Kirgan were groomsmen.

Ushers and candlelighters included Douglas Redding and Terry Johnston, cousins of the bride. Susan Wall was pianist and accompanied the vocalist, Dawn Kindle of Granite City, a friend of the bride, as she sang "You Light Up My Life" and "The Wedding Song." At the close of the ceremony, the couple lit a unity candle.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sugg selected a sleeveless gown of pale aqua silk tulle with princess lines and tiny covered buttons down the front. An attached cape fell softly over the shoulders and below the waist in back. The groom's mother was attired in a gown of white chiffon over taffeta with beading trim, and a sheer cape and back panels of ice blue chiffon with matching lace edging. Both mothers wore coragies of white silk roses and aqua baby's breath.

A buffet reception and dance was held immediately following the ceremony at the St. Nicholas Hall in Pocahontas. Assisting with the reception were Sharon Peterson, Naomi Redding, and Jane Carter, aunts of the bride, and Marilyn Durborow, Becky Sugg and Tammy Johnston, cousins of the bride, handed out rice bags and presided at the gift table. UNITED WAY representatives and Elite Hairdressers Affiliate 33 officers meet to discuss the United Way campaign and how agencies benefit from the community fund. First row, from left, Julie Ahring, affiliate treasurer, Cindy Garrison, Coordinated Youth Services clothing center worker, and Sheila Morgan, affiliate vice-president. Second row, from left, Larry Mueller, ALP-CIO Community Services Division of United Way, Jo Meyer, UW Commercial Division-Beauty Salons leader, Barbara Cunningham, United Way volunteer, and Kim Affolter, Manpower Work advisor assisting in the 1978 drive.

Hairdressers hear United Way story

Representatives of various United Way agencies were guests at the Elite Hairdressers Affiliate 33 meeting last week. Members heard how United Way donations help to finance the operations of agencies to provide aid to Quad-City seniors, youth and families who require various types of assistance.

Addressing the beautician's group were Larry Mueller, AFL-CIO Community Services, Barbara Cunningham, a volunteer UW worker, Kim Affolter, Manpower Work advisor, presently helping in the campaign, and Jo Meyer of the United Way Commercial Division, who is responsible for the beauty salon section.

Sheila Morgan, vice president, was in charge of the business session.

In addition to learning more about the United Way programs of giving, the discussion focused on a benefit hair shape-athon, set Sunday, Oct. 8, at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture.

Proceeds from the public event will be divided equally between the affiliate's educational fund and the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association (NHCA) Disaster Fund.

Betty Smith, shape-athon chairman, invited any local hairdresser to take part in the event and also the general public. Those interested may call her at 678-3276 for further information.

Donations of $3 for hair shaping and $3 for blow-dry styling will be sought at the benefit project.

Mrs. Smith said the NHCA Disaster Fund assists beauticians nationwide, whose salons are destroyed or severely damaged by fire, flood, tornado or hurricane.

A need to build up the fund is vital, Mrs. Smith reported, noting in the past 18 months the association has received many applications for aid from victims of flooding in Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Missouri, among others.

The fund was established in 1965 in response to flooding that wiped out salons in Connecticut and New Jersey. Later, aid was extended to flood victims in California.

In 1964, when earthquakes ravaged Alaska, a number of beauty salons were demolished and help was provided to rebuild the salons, Mrs. Smith explained.

Another topic of interest to the affiliate's plans for the annual hair styling and fashion show, scheduled Sunday, Oct. 15, at 2 p.m. at Granite City Moose Lodge, 19th and Adams streets.

Julie Ahring, general chairman, said tickets now are available for the show at local beauty salons and participating merchants.

The hair-fashion show is among the projects sponsored by local hairdressers in observance of "National Beauty Salon Week."

Others attending were Mesdames Frances Vivod, Ann Mega, Irene Kadane, Sue Perdicaris and two guests, Ann Okai and Wilma Sydow. The October meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Vivod.

Also Dorothy Bridick, Madison Senior Club, Elsie Hawks, Sacred Heart Seniors, Neva Werthe, Anchorage Club, Marge Hall, YMCA Senior Club, Juanita Crawley, Saturday Night Card Club, and Oscar Ash, Tri-Mor Senior Bowling.

Mrs. Ruby Corbitt, president of the Golden Agers Circle Club of Kirkpatrick Homes, one of the most active of the senior groups, presented Mrs. Ellen Christy, the charter president who is now 82 years of age. She was given a standing ovation for her activity in the community, and it was noted there are only four of the original members still living.

Mrs. Corbitt, who is also the acting president of the Granite City Senior Center Club, spoke on the activities held daily at the Township Hall which includes nutrition, card games, dancing and movies.

All groups were asked to send in a written resume to be included in a club list to be published soon.

Following the guests talks a business session was held with reports submitted by Neva Werthe, secretary and Edna Isham, treasurer.

Mrs. Hoover announced an offer from Disney World, Fla., had been received and added SUE will hold a dialogue for senior citizens to open its fourth year on Wednesday, Oct. 18, at the Edwardsville campus.

Mrs. Caroline Lux reported 121 people present, and Carrie Hart said cards were sent to many who are hospitalized and memorials were sent for the late Edna Wyatt and Alvina Rankin.

Various bills passed by the state legislature were reviewed by Oscar Ash, and Mrs. Vernice Walter announced a class entitled "Armchair Travel" scheduled by the Institute of Learning will be held for six weeks beginning on Tuesday, Oct. 17, at the YMCA.

Students from different countries will speak about their country using slides, photos, currency, clothing, maps and flags at the classes. Enrollment fee is $1 and the course will be held each Tuesday from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Hoover asked for a volunteer to complete plans for first aid classes in conjunction with the Red Cross and said an area AARP workshop will be conducted on Oct. 27, at Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville.

Refreshments were served after the session and dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the afternoon.

'Aloha week' means welcome

Students returning for SIUE fall quarter classes today through Friday won't be greeted with grass-skirt-clad native girls and Hawaiian leis, but they will have the choice of participating in more than 50 activities on campus during "Aloha-Welcome Back Week."

Sponsored by the Major Events Council, the University Center Board and many other campus organizations and offices, the week began on the first day of fall quarter classes, with opening ceremonies led this morning by President Kenneth A. Shaw.

Other activities scheduled today include a candy apple sale, kidney bean counting competition and a "Playfair" where students may participate in non-competitive games.

Tomorrow, students may hear a "street corner symphony" near the University Center, participate in a water balloon toss contest in the "hairpin" area, see a demonstration of a hands-off volleyball game by the SIUE soccer team, or go on an old-fashioned hayride and a luau cookout.

Students will have a chance to write graffiti on Pres. Shaw's car for 50 cents on Wednesday. Also that day, the rock group "Griffin" will play on the University Center patio, and a "create-a-mug" face painting contest will give students a chance to win prizes by painting the face of a friend.

Thursday will feature an "outdoor festival" at the Faculty Club patio, which will be open to the university community. Bill Haynes, coffeehouse performer, will entertain at the festival. A Black Student Association enrichment program will be held in Goshen Lounge of the University Center during the day, and a Bubble Gym "late-night" with games, exhibitions and a KSHE radio disc jockey will be featured that night.

University Center bowling lanes. Mike Williams, coffeehouse singer, will entertain in Goshen Lounge and a surprise concert sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will take place in the hairpin. The "American dream disco" will be held Friday night in Meridian Ballroom of the University Center, with both male and female disc jockeys, dance contests and dance instruction. Throughout this week, the information desk and campus bookstore will offer specials on merchandise. Food service areas on campus, including the Dock, cafeteria and The University Club, also will offer specials all week.

In case of bad weather, some of the events would be moved to Goshen Lounge.

Three boys were arrested last week near the home of Wilbur Wallace, 12120 Nevada Ave., after Wallace's home was burglarized.

A neighbor reported the home was being broken into by three boys and officers responded to find two boys running in the alley carrying books and soft drinks. They were captured and questioned.

The neighbor said the third boy left on a bicycle just before officers arrived. He was arrested at his home a short time later. The boys, ages 12, 13 and 16, may face juvenile court action.

Police found a window of Wallace's home had been pried, possibly with a broken shovel found near the window. Items removed from the home were found hidden under a porch of a nearby home.

New filter by Consolidated Aluminum praised worldwide

A new product developed by Consolidated Aluminum Corporation, Madison and St. Louis, has been selected as one of the 100 most significant technical products among all industry, it is being announced in Chicago.

The product, trademarked SELEE, is an open-pore ceramic filter for use primarily by the metals industry.

It was a winner in the 1978 I-R 100 award competition sponsored by Industrial Research-Development magazine. The competition attracts entries from all industries worldwide.

Consolidated Aluminum was the only I-R 100 1978 award winner in the aluminum industry, and the only winner among St. Louis-headquartered companies.

Receiving the award for the SELEE filter at a presentation ceremony Thursday in the Museum of Science & Industry in Chicago was Consolidated Aluminum's vice-president of research and development, Dr. Robert W. Widenmann.

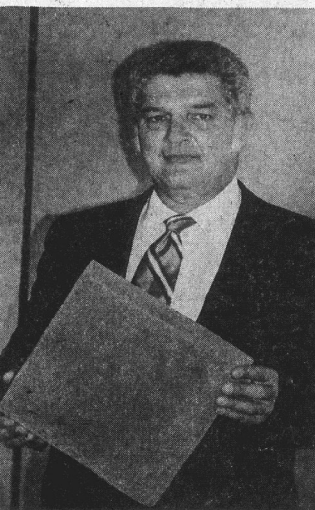

Accompanying him was the product's chief developer, James E. Dore, director of process technology for Consolidated Aluminum.

The event also served to open a four-week public exhibit in the museum of the 1978 I-R award-winning products.

"SELEE structure is a molten metal filtration product which is revolutionizing the metals industry's filtration process because of its extreme economy, ease of use and increased efficiency," Dr. Widenmann said.

Made of a ceramic material consisting primarily of aluminum oxide and chromium oxide, SELEE filters consist of a continuous network of connected pores. Each cubic inch of the structure has a filter surface area of 10,000 square inches. It is completely disposable.

The filter is used in primary melting and casting and foundry operations to filter oxides and other non-metallic particles from molten aluminum alloys. It can operate at a cost of 30 percent to 75 percent less than other filtration processes.

Development of the SELEE filter, from concept to initial production use, covered a period of eight months in 1976. From 1974 through 1978, it was being tested and used in production by Consolidated Aluminum. In 1977, the filter became commercially available.

More than one billion pounds of aluminum have been filtered through SELEE structures to date, on a production basis at Consolidated Aluminum's plants across the nation, in molten metal pours up to 90,000 pounds.

Advantages of filtration using the SELEE structure include less capital outlay for filtration systems, lower manufacturing costs, increased productivity and improved product quality.

Nearly all segments of the aluminum industry should be able to benefit from use of the new filter, as well as other metal industries, a spokesman said.

Consolidated Aluminum is the nation's fourth largest aluminum producer. The company is engaged in the manufacture of primary, industrial, fabricated and consumer products.

It employs more than 8,000 persons at 20 plants in 11 states. Sales of Consolidated in 1977 totaled $600 million.

Fletcher's Kahok era over, after 747 wins

Alton Telegraph — "The world will not end with a bang, but with a whimper."

Vergil Fletcher's world at Collinsville High School Monday night ended with a whimper.

The "Wonderful World" of Collinsville basketball under Fletcher came to a screeching halt not with flowers and bouquets of verbal praise but with ugly overtones after Fletcher, the basketball coach at Collinsville High for the past 32 years, was relieved by the Collinsville School Board.

By a 5-2 vote, the board voted to name Gene Catalpa as the Kahok's head basketball coach for the 1978-79 year and Frank Pito as the Collinsville athletic director.

The vote was swallowed bitterly by Fletcher, who had resigned his physical education job at the school last month.

Fletcher had asked the board to consider rehiring him as the school's athletic director (for two hours a day) and keeping him on as the Kahok's basketball coach.

The board Monday told Fletcher what it thought of his request. Naturally, Vergil wasn't impressed with the jury's verdict. In fact, he was downright sarcastic.

"I knew what was going to happen because this school board is mean. And they are jealous, too. It gives them (board members) a source of power to satisfy their ego," he said.

Fletcher's wife, Violet, is a school board member, so obviously Vergil was not including her in his tirade. But even district superintendent John Renfro got a verbal whipping.

"When it got to Renfro, he didn't take any action on it because he doesn't have any backbone. He was agreeing with those guys on the board because he is afraid of losing his job. That's not my way of living," added the 63-year-old coach.

Perhaps not, but frankly Fletcher was far from being an angel himself at his final years at Collinsville.

Sometimes his vanity would gush out in full force during interviews, and most of the time he would treat members of the press as necessary nuisances, unless they were boosting his public image.

You either totally agreed with Fletcher or you were totally against him, he figured. Meeting him somewhere in the middle was a tricky task.

Interestingly enough, Fletcher's own stubborn pride played a part in keeping him from returning to Collinsville as the Kahok's basketball coach this season.

The Collinsville School Board suggested they retain Fletcher as basketball coach — for one year — and as an athletic director — for two hours a day — if he would work from 7:30 to 9:30 each morning five days a week. Fletcher balked at the idea because he didn't want to work the early-morning shift and he probably wanted to stay on for more than one season as the Kahok's basketball coach.

For one thing, Fletcher wanted and still wants to surpass the late Arthur Trout of Centralia as the state's winningest basketball coach.

Trout won 809 games in 42 years at Centralia, meaning that Fletcher would have needed 63 victories at Collinsville to pass Trout for the most wins at one school.

In addition to his 747 wins in Kahokland, Fletcher took a Collinsville team to state 14 times and he won or tied for first place in the Southwestern Conference 20 times in 32 seasons.

Before coming to Collinsville, Fletcher won a total of 42 games during brief stints at both Mt. Pulaski and Pana.

But it may be even impossible for Fletcher to get the 21 wins he needs to pass Trout for most career victories by a coach at more than one school. At least Fletcher won't get the chance this year.

He is out of coaching for certain during the 1978-79 school year.

"I'm going to visit with my family for awhile," said Fletcher, who has sons and daughters spread all over the country.

Youngest son Marc is a starting guard for Tulane University in New Orleans. Another son, Mike, is a lawyer in Memphis, and Fletcher has a kink on the East Coast, too.

"I have kids all over the country, so I have lots of things to do and lots of places to go," he said. "I'm really not in a hurry to get back to coaching because if I did return it would have to be to a parochial high school or for a college job. So I'm retiring in Illinois right now," he added.

In effect, Fletcher's teaching days are not, if he can work out an arrangement with an interested school.

"I have had some offers if I want them. But maybe I don't want them," he said.

Fletcher, a staunch Democrat, said a fling with politics is unlikely, even though at one time he was interested in running for the state senate.

"I'm not going to run for office because that's a rat race, too," he noted.

Might Fletcher's curiosity be tickled enough that he would return this year to the gymnasium for him and his wife, Violet, a couple of times in the Purple Palace?

"I don't plan to see very many high school games," he said. "It sounds as though Fletcher is doing some wounded pride. Fletcher is hurt."

"It doesn't hurt because we expected this from this group of very smart people," he said.

"I'm sort of glad to get out from under this school board because they are jealous of me," he said. "They weren't too successful. It's all political jealousy," he concluded.

"I don't plan to see very many high school games," he said. "It sounds as though Fletcher is doing some wounded pride. Fletcher is hurt."

But for sure, Vergil Fletcher never will be the same without Vergil Fletcher sitting on the Kahok's bench and directing the Collinsville full-court "ballpress" defense.

Fletcher's absence from the coaching ranks this season means that Bunker Hill's Jim Hafka assumes the role as the dean of area coaches for consecutive years at one school. Hafka will start his 19th straight season at Bunker Hill this winter.

Don Otness of Belleville East is beginning his 13th year as head coach of the Lancers, and Roger Thovenin is starting his 11th straight season at Mascoutah and Larry Graham is a 10-year man at Madison.

For the record, Collinsville, under Fletcher, won or tied for SWC titles in 1977-78 (tie with East St. Louis), 1976-77, 1974-75 (tie with Alton), 1973-74, 1966-70, 1959-65 (including a tie in 1961-62 with Belleville), 1954-55, 1951-52 and 1945-50 (including a tie with Wood River in 1949-50). The conference disbanded for two years, 1953-54 and 1954-55.

Fletcher took Kahok teams to the state tourney in the following years: 1978, 1977, 1973, 1972, 1970, 1967, 1965, 1964, 1963, 1961, 1957, 1950, 1948 and 1947.

Lack of limits on property value and government's role worry Quad-Cityans despite favorable tax comparisons

Statistics continue to show a favorable Illinois tax picture compared to other states. But trends indicated several causes of concern — the overall cost of doing business is beginning to exceed that in the Sunbelt, tax ceilings tied to fast-rising property values are providing big government spending opportunities, and government seems willing to continue expanding its role in daily life.

The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois finds this state is only 32nd among the 50 states with $114 in state and local taxes ($63 state and $51 local) for every $1,000 of personal income. Alaska leads with $217 and Arkansas is last with $98. Noting that the Illinois figure is 11 percent, or one percent more than church taxes, the Federation comments, "If 10 percent is good enough for God, it ought to be good enough for the governor."

8 of county's 9 air pollution violators not in this area

Without minimizing the air pollution problem that remains in the Quad-Cities, it is interesting to note that only one of the nine Madison County offenders is in this community. The local firm is Granite City Steel, which is spending millions of dollars on remedies and has worked out detailed procedures in this regard with state and federal air authorities.

The Alton-Wood River area accounts for eight of the nine. Amoco Oil Co., Shell Oil Refinery, Laclede Steel Co., Olin Corp., Alton Boxboard, Illinois Power Co., Owens-Illinois and Clark Oil Refinery. This correlates with the pattern of summertime ozone alerts, which have been occurring in the northern half of Madison County but not in the southern half.

Inventors of Berlin Wall now using poisoned umbrellas

The next time some "socialist" touts the supposed virtues of Communism compared to the problems of democracies, we hope he is reminded of the case of Georgi Markov, an acclaimed Bulgarian playwright who defected to the West in 1969.

Trained by a Red assassin along a sidewalk outside the British Broadcasting Corp., London, where he was working, Markov, 49, was jabbed in the leg Sept. 6 with an umbrella tipped by a tiny, poisonous hypodermic needle. The 'slow' dissolving poison took its toll and he died four days later another victim of Iron Curtain "justice."

Republican opposed by 3 Democrats

To the Editor:

The next 45 days will decide most elections. We expect to conduct a vigorous telephone canvass from offices in Alton and Collinsville.

I am hopeful that each committee member will recruit helpers and conduct an effective door-to-door campaign for votes in the neighborhoods. We must do our part to register new Republicans and promote a high Republican voter turnout.

The Republican Women's dinner dance was a wonderful success, with approximately 400 tickets sold. Bethalto Homecoming was a definite plus for the Republican effort. Don Beasley's contribution of long hours and his loan of two tents were particularly noteworthy. Our candidates easily outperformed the Democrats on stage.

The most outstanding performance was given by William Johnson, whose rather wild speaking style was topped only by his wild statements, such as, "Republicans in Madison County live in penthouses."

Johnson was found unquote, "unfit" by members of the Madison County Bar Association.

Janet Willard's withdrawal and strong support for Rep. Everett Steele will be a very important factor in his reelection.

The three Democrats in this race — Lucero masquerading as an independent — all have big spending records and scored less than 20 percent in the Illinois Chamber of Commerce voting to promote a good job for the Republican ticket. Three votes for Everett from each Republican will ensure his reelection.

The election is very important. As a nation, we stand at a crossroads.

One road holds out the appeal associated with redistribution of the nation's wealth. This is socialism, and it also holds in "Tax revolt" discussions throughout the 50 states stem largely from June 6, when California voters through Proposition 13 adopted a tax-cutting amendment to their state constitution.

There is no similar mechanism in Illinois, but surveys show voters would prefer a limit on spending and taxing, rather than an immediate tax rebate — a Two Proposition 13 response that has emerged in the current Thompson-Bakalis gubernatorial campaign.

Perhaps the principal concern here is not the present state but taxpayers' preception of the future: California has been pictured as a precedent-setting state, and its taxation tops $148 per $1,000 personal income. The Illinois Federation sums up by noting that "government is a growth industry, and people worry when they see it continuing to expand."

Arrest in Venice

Venice police responded to reports to two fights in the parking lot of Tri-City Grocery on Broadway Friday evening.

At 9:40 p.m. Friday, police were told motorcycle gangs were fighting on the parking lot and responded, but found no fighting among the persons on the lot.

About 10 minutes later, officers were called back to the lot and Ted Brazel, 1215a Klein St., Venice, alleged Robert Porter, 21, of 2904 Washington Ave., struck Brazel's head with a bottle.

Porter was charged with battery and was released after posting $35 cash bond.

Find stolen purses

Two purses were stolen from a parked car in the parking lot of Rico's II Lounge, 3675 N. Broadway, between 11:30 p.m. Sunday and 1:55 a.m. today, and were recovered in a trash bin behind the nearby Nicks Cinema.

Nicki Barbach, Olivette, Mo., reported someone broke the left rear window of her car and took her purse and one belonging to a friend, Paula DeSimone, of Venice.

Nothing was known missing from the purses when they were recovered. A security guard at the lounge said he saw the purses belonging to the other young women on the parking lot which had the contents strewn about the lot.

Police contacted those young women who are to claim their purses today and determine if anything is missing from them.

JEWELRY BOX TAKEN

A jewelry box containing about $15 worth of jewelry was stolen from a bedroom at the home of Wilma Herring, 2501 E. 25th St., she reported at 3:30 p.m. Saturday. She said the box, belonging to her son, was full of men's jewelry. It could not be determined how entry was gained.

CANDY, CAKE, T-SHIRTS

Students at Granite City High School North may purchase candy from the Spanish Club beginning today and ending Friday during their annual sale.

Tuesday, Flag and Rifle will hold a bake sale during lunch periods. Steelier T-shirts also will be on sale by cheerleaders in the North cafeteria during lunch periods.

3,000 RING GONE

A gold ring with 19 diamonds and valued at about $1,000 was taken from the home of Jeanne Francis, 3244 Erin Drive, the owner, discovered last week. She said the ring disappeared while she was in the hospital. There were no signs of forced entry found.

Decision to drop contract is confirmed

The Madison County Housing Authority board of directors met Thursday night and voted to uphold its previous action to allow the contract of Executive Director Edward Foley of Venice expire Nov. 30.

The board also decided to continue paying Foley during the remainder of the contract, although relieving him of his duties.

It was decided to create three new positions in the housing authority with each taking a portion of work formerly done by Foley.

Actions taken created the positions of assistant executive director, secretary to the board, and accountant-treasurer. Mark Reibold is serving as acting assistant executive director until a new director is found.

The board agreed to advertise in a national housing magazine for applicants.

More marijuana gun charge

high school

Two students, ages 14 and 15, were arrested in Wilson Park behind Granite City High School Thursday and were charged with possessing marijuana in a bag. He also had a wooden pipe, police said.

The 15-year-old had a small amount of marijuana in his trousers, officers alleged. The two were arrested after police investigated a group of five students gathered in the park. When officers approached, one appeared to put something in his trousers, leading to the searches.

The other three students were sent to school.

Two indicted

Two Madison County residents were indicted by a federal grand jury in Springfield Thursday afternoon and are to be arraigned in federal court in Alton Thursday.

Jerry Wray Jr. was indicted on a charge of possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. He posted $1,000 cash bond Friday and was released.

Darrell Marcel Everage was indicted on a charge of interference with commerce by threats of violence. He was arrested Sept. 12 and is being held in Springfield until the arraignment.

News notes

Governor James Thompson's veto of county jail financial aid legislation eliminates up to $1,700,000 (40 percent) that otherwise could have been applied to the current construction of a new Madison County jail. Thompson stressed that jails are a local responsibility and prisons are a state function. He also vetoed a bill that would have let local governments pay higher welfare rates than the state.

Landon R. "Pug" Fisher, 47, vice-president of Carpenters' Local 1808 of Granite City, has been sentenced by U.S. District Judge J. Waldo Ackerman to two years in prison for possession of a firearm by a convicted felon.

Fisher served time in a penitentiary in the early 1960s and, therefore, was prohibited from carrying a gun. Federal authorities said Nov. 19, 1977, however, a handgun allegedly was confiscated from him in a Cottage Hills tavern.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Ackerman said he was giving the minimum sentence because Fisher had "been in trouble with the law for a number of years."

Ackerman declined prosecutors' requests that a $10,000 fine also be assessed. Fisher was given until Oct. 4 to settle his affairs before beginning his sentence in a federal institution.

Kirkpatrick man arrested

Clarence E. Haynes, 63, of 4205 Kirkpatrick Homes, was arrested at home at 2:25 p.m. Thursday on warrants alleging unlawful possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and two counts of falsification of applications for firearm ownership identification cards.

The arrest stems from a recent disturbance in Kirkpatrick Homes during which Haynes allegedly was stirring up trouble with neighbors.

While Haynes was in custody, someone broke into his apartment, stole an assortment of canned goods and allowed his German Shepherd dog to run free.

At 1 p.m. Friday, police were told that someone had pried open a window to the apartment with a large stick, which was left in the window, and had burglarized the apartment.

Vitale, who was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth's Hospital, was admitted.

Hearing Sept. 28 for alleged rapist

A preliminary hearing has been set for 2 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 28, for Kenneth Chalmers Spiroff, 40, of 1437a Second St., Madison, who is being held in the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville in lieu of $2.5 million bond on charges of raping four young women and sexually assaulting another.

The accused is not related to the Kenneth Spiroff who operates Spiroff Heating and Air Conditioning in Granite City.

Madison police, who developed information leading to the solving of the five incidents in which Spiroff is charged, disclosed that San Francisco police furnished them a file on the Spiroff who is accused of the five attacks between Aug. 8 and Sept. 13.

A 15-year-old who said she was dragged from her quarters in the Catholic Children's Home in Alton Aug. 8 and was taken to a home in Madison where she was raped and photographed performing sexual acts for about three hours was reported to have been the first to identify Spiroff as her attacker.

Officers then obtained a warrant to search Spiroff's home and alleged finding lewd pictures, photography equipment and other evidence. Spiroff was arrested and allegedly has confessed to at least four of the attacks.

The Madison County state's attorney's office Monday issued five informational documents from the five attacks, charging Spiroff with a total of 19 felony charges, most covered under the state's new Class X legislation which sets stiff minimum sentences.

In addition to charges of rape, aggravated kidnapping and two counts of deviate sexual assault against the 15-year-old girl, Spiroff is charged with:

—Rape and three counts of deviate sexual assault from the Aug. 12 attack of a 33-year-old Madison woman at her home.

—Aggravated battery and deviate sexual assault Aug. 23 against an Eagle Park woman, age 18.

Three counts of deviate sexual assault in Madison against a 22-year-old Madison woman Sept. 7.

—Rape, armed robbery, burglary and two counts of deviate sexual assault against a Granite City woman, age 24, raped in her home Sept. 13.

In all of the reports, the attacker wore a ski mask and used a knife. Most victims were tied with tape and some were called by name.

Authorities said Spiroff, an air conditioner repairman at Howard's Air Conditioning in Granite City, may have become acquainted with the victims through his work, which took him into many homes. He called some of his victims by name during the attacks, it was alleged.

Officers said Spiroff was born in Madison County and moved to California where he was convicted of lewd and lascivious conduct for an alleged attack on two girls and was sentenced to serve 12 years in prison. He was paroled in 1972 and returned to this area about six months ago, according to authorities.

Benefit dance Oct. 7 to aid Cystic Fibrosis

Melinda Jo Lux of Belleville, the area poster child for the Cystic Fibrosis Fund, sold the first tickets to a Oct. 7 benefit dance to three local mayors while visiting the office of Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler last week.

Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold of Venice and Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison also were purchasers of the first tickets to the dance, which is scheduled to start at 9 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 7, at the Tri-City American Legion Home, 1825 State St.

Accepting responsibility to sell 225 tickets for the dance are members of the Granite City Jaycees, according to Danny Poston, president.

The public may obtain tickets, costing $3 each, from Jaycee members, at Legion Post 113, at the door the evening of the dance, or from Brenda Harper, who has served as chairman of the Madison Cystic Fibrosis drive for the past six years.

Mrs. Harper may be contacted at 877-0008 for tickets. Melinda, Poston and Mrs. Harper were on hand at Mayor Schuler's office to sell the initial tickets.

"We really hope the public will support the dance, in order to help children like Melinda," Poston said.

Melinda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Irene) Lux of Belleville.

Although a happy fourth grade pupil at Roosevelt Elementary School in Belleville, Melinda is required to sleep each night in a mist tent.

She takes postural drainage treatment twice daily and a large variety of medicine, also on a daily basis.

Music at the benefit dance will be provided by Third Wind band.

Now is the time to check your furnace and chimney

If you heat your home with natural gas, now is the time to check your furnace and chimney. It's worth a little effort to keep your heating system clean and the flue unobstructed. You'll enjoy safe, trouble-free heating.

Here are a few checkpoints:

1. With a circulating warm air furnace, clean the heat exchanger and burners.

2. Clean or replace furnace filters frequently.

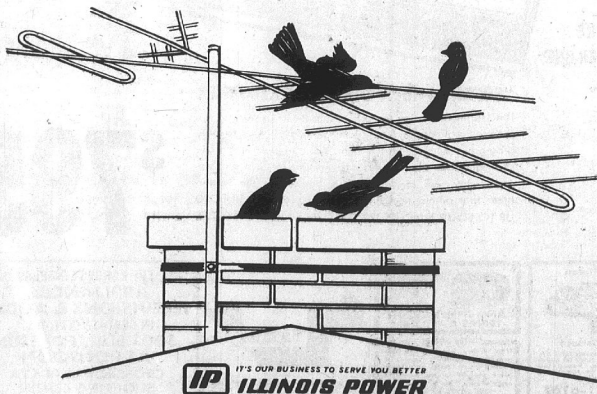

3. Clean lint regularly from hot water or steam radiators.

4. Flush the low water cut-off of a steam boiler once a week until water runs clear.

5. Clean lint and other debris from heat registers.

6. Blowers and blower motors should be cleaned and oiled sparingly at regular intervals. Make sure the blower belt is tight and not worn.

7. Make sure your chimney is free of debris. Check by placing a lighted match under the diverter, at the connection of the furnace exhaust pipe. If the flame goes out or downward, shut off the furnace until the chimney is cleaned.

New towing law signed

Legislation to regulate elements of the towing business which have victimized citizens in some areas with high charges for towing and storage of illegally parked vehicles has been approved by Governor James R. Thompson.

"This bill helps people. One of the most despicable practices around has been to tow a person's car away and then hold it for ransom. The legislation is designed to stop that activity," Thompson said.

It applies only in counties of one million population or more. Cook County being the only one, but smaller counties may have the option of requesting inclusion if they desire. The bill requires towing companies and their drivers to obtain licenses from the Illinois Commerce Commission. It requires the firms to carry adequate insurance on their activities, including a minimum of $100,000 per person for personal injury, at least $300,000 for any one accident, not less than $500,000 for damage to property other than a vehicle, and $15,000 per vehicle.

It prohibits storage charges unless a vehicle is kept longer than 72 hours; permits car owners to pay charges with credit cards; directs that the Illinois Commerce Commission set the fees the firms may charge; and continues to allow the firms to place liens on towed vehicles to collect their fees.

Youth abandons stolen vehicle

The auto of Floyd Spurlock, 2133 Robert Ave., was stolen from Ralph's Texaco, 2200 Madison Ave., about noon Thursday and was recovered in the 2900 block of Michigan Avenue about 1:15 p.m. when it ran out of gasoline and a boy, about 17 years old, abandoned it.

A witness said the car spluttered to a stop and the driver, who was small and had shoulder-length blond hair, got out and walked east on St. James' Street toward the high school.

There were no signs the car had been broken into or the ignition damaged. There was minor damage to the right front and a hub cap was missing.

There is someone who misses you sadly, And finds the time long since you went, And tries to be brave and content. Gone is the face we loved so dear, Silent the voice we loved to hear, To said but true, we wonder why, The best are always the first to die. Sadly missed by Husband and Daughters. 33 9 25

3 short-change artists released

Three short-change artists who obtained $19 from an attendant at the Clark Service Station, Route 111 south of Route 162, at 12:10 p.m. Saturday by confusing the attendant while he was making change, were captured later Saturday in Edwardsville.

The attendant said the men approached him twice to make change and then drove away. He then discovered about $19 had been taken in the transactions.

Another employee followed the auto of the men near Glen Carbon. In that city, another service station attendant also was short-changed. The description and license numbers of the car were radioed to area police departments and Edwardsville police stopped the car in that city a short time later.

A Florida man and two Brooklyn men were taken into custody and agreed to make restitution to the attendants at the two service stations. The station owners declined to prosecute and the men were released.

Christmas Ideas Festival Nov. 18

The Granite City Park District will introduce a new Christmas pre-holiday program to Granite City residents this fall—a "Christmas Ideas Festival," planned Saturday, Nov. 18, at the Nameoki Recreation Center, Ames and Franklin avenues.

Harold E. Brown, director of parks and recreation, said today the festival is designed to display and sell handcrafted gifts and decorations made by area residents, primarily for the Christmas holidays.

Although emphasis will be placed on Christmas crafts, items will not be limited to the season, but all must be handcrafted originals, he stressed. No food or clothing will be allowed.

The festival will be open to individuals and groups from the bi-state metropolitan area, with Granite City residents given first priority to take part.

Exhibitors will be provided a three-by-eight-foot table on which to display their crafts. The tables will cost $2.50 for Granite City residents and $5 for non-residents. Two tables may be used if necessary, Brown said.

Interested persons may submit applications no later than Wednesday, Oct. 11, Brown said. Notification of acceptance in the festival will be returned by Oct. 20.

Further information may be obtained at the Wilson Park office, or by calling 877-3659 or 451-7553.

In addition to displays at the festival, Brown said exhibitors will be encouraged to demonstrate their skills to the public, or conduct brief classes throughout the day.

Most handicapped aren't riding buses

Testifying in Chicago at a regional U.S. Department of Transportation public hearing, Executive Director Barry M. Locke last week urged federal officials to employ caution with implementing regulations pertaining to handicapped persons and accessible transportation.

As director of the first transit company in the nation to institute fully accessible buses, regular fixed routes, Locke reaffirmed Bi-State's support of the intent of the DOT's proposed regulations on Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which would end discrimination against the handicapped in federally-funded programs.

But he warned of inevitable problems which could arise if all transit systems were required to become accessible.

Bi-State began operating buses with wheelchair lift equipment in August 1977 and expanded its service in November 1977, including a McKinley Bridge route. Operating 157 accessible buses on 22 regular routes was "extremely costly," Locke told the officials, and the use of the equipment was "disappointingly sparse."

According to a new study sponsored by the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, of the 410,000 persons in wheelchairs in the U.S., only 30 percent are physically capable of using accessible fixed route services.

Many of these people have already established alternative means of transportation or own and operate their own automobiles.

Since Bi-State began its accessible bus program, only 1,000 one-way trips have been made by wheelchair passengers, Locke said, with daily utilization averaging three to five riders.

Cost of providing this service to such a small number of riders is "tremendous," Locke said. In addition to the extra $7,000 expense of each of these buses, Bi-State paid more than $650,000 for staff and materials to operate the program.

The performance of the lifts themselves caused numerous problems and 50 to 60 percent of them are inoperable on any given day.

"Total maintenance costs directly attributable to the lifts alone account for more than $270,000. Such expense and effort is difficult to rationalize in view of the low utilization by persons in wheelchairs. "We feel that the department will discover, as Bi-State has, that the reliability of this equipment, especially the lift mechanism itself, is extremely poor," Locke said.

"In view of this and other factors, we feel the department should immediately reconsider the interim policy on accessibility and adjust the proposed deadlines, to reflect the availability of reliable equipment which can only be provided through additional research and development."

"The state of the art must be improved. If these proposed Section 504 regulations are mandated, then other transit properties will undoubtedly face the possibilities of purchasing equipment that is neither practical nor functional in line-haul service."

"In the final analysis, the persons we are diligently trying to serve—both handicapped and non-handicapped—will be ultimately suffer due to unreliable service."

"The need for reliable service is of the utmost importance as we develop policies relative to the accessibility of transportation services to the handicapped."

Locke also recommended that the DOT address the needs of the deaf, blind and mentally retarded, as well as wheelchair riders.

"The proposed regulations do not include provisions to aid the transit needs of these individuals, and teleprinters, Braille literature, cassette recordings and special training programs would certainly be beneficial to them."

$1,200 theft

Connie Lawrence, 108 Wilson Park Lane, reported to police at 12:35 p.m. Friday that items valued at $1,200 had been stolen from her home and yard.

Locke said the items were taken during the Labor Day weekend, but she was not reported the incident until she discovered the items had been taken from her yard.

Taken from the house were $100 cash, a $320 amplifier, a $35 ring, and a piggy bank and change.

Stolen from the yard were six tires and rims valued at $300, an $80 motorcycle fender, a radio tower and antenna worth $265 and a $100 lawn mower. All the items taken from the yard had been chained together, she said.

Sharon Sharp assails donations to opponent

Sharon Sharp, Republican candidate for secretary of state, charged Friday that her opponent had distorted his spending record and has accepted illegal contributions.

Appearing before members of the Illinois Press Association in Decatur, she declared, "Alan Dixon says his budget is less than last year's. It is, but the thanks are due him. He requested an increase of $4.7 million, about five percent, but the governor vetoed $5.8 million of his request."

"In interviews, Sec. Dixon implies he made the savings, when only a grossly distorted telling of the record would support his implication."

What is even more startling is the increase of nearly 21 percent between his budget in his first year in office and the previous year under Mike Howlett. The budget went from $90 million to $108.7 million in just one year."

Mrs. Sharp continued her attack on Dixon's campaign funds. She declared, "The 700 or more pages of his reports are studded with conflicts of interest. Looking almost at random, we have found two contributions from liquor licenses received and recorded when such contributions were illegal. The law was changed on June 30."

She listed these as $100 from the Navarone Corp., Elk Grove Village, and $100 from the Longwood Country Club, Steger.

She alleged that the Dixon fund has accepted "large numbers of contributions from businesses he regulates."

"Our research is not complete, but the sums and the numbers are distressing to anyone concerned with clean campaign funding."

"More than 325 auto dealers—regulated and inspected by him—gave more than $35,000. The 33 driving schools we found gave more than $4,000, and contributions of more than $5,000 came from 32 trucking firms."

"In addition, we have found that 11 currency exchanges or service gave more than $3,000."

"The question is not one of legality. It is one of propriety—should he accept money from the very people he either regulates or does business with?"

Mrs. Sharp said several persons have complained to her that investigators for the state's attorney solicited contributions from the businesses they inspect regularly.

Another recent unpleasant incident occurred on the Capital grounds when Dixon's investigators arrested and handcuffed a news photographer doing his job during a demonstration. No charges were filed.

"I agree completely with the editors of the State Journal Register (Springfield) that law enforcement functions of the secretary of state should be turned over to the state police. I will meet shortly with legislative leaders to discuss reducing legislation to this end."

She again attacked what she called Dixon's refusal to take a breath rest in California when he was arrested as a driver.

"The answer," she said, "was to arrest him at all and come out from Alan Dixon but from a spokesman, who was quoted as saying:

"Dixon believes chemical tests can affect different people in different ways. Thus, he advises clients not to take the test. He believes all people should be treated equally. Apparently Mrs. Sharp doesn't believe in equality."

"This exculpatory statement by an aide dodges the facts: Mr. Dixon has every right to do what he wants in a drunk driving case. But he has 'no right' to the office he holds if he cannot personally and officially support the law of Illinois, which calls on drivers to take a breath test."

"If he cannot in good conscience support the Illinois law, that's his privilege. But the privilege is personal, and should not encumber the highway safety duties of the secretary of state."

"If Mr. Dixon suspends his own license consistent with his reported belief that all people should be treated equally if he acknowledges and returns the contributions, and if he makes a public statement disavowing conflict-of-interest contributions—only then will I be convinced he hasn't put himself above the law."

She also took issue with leaflets implying that five-year license plates and staggered registration "were his notable contribution to citizen convenience and official thrift."

"The idea was not this, and in fact had been considered several times before its adoption by the General Assembly. He invented nothing. He was just responding to a mandate. But that isn't the message of the leaflets he had printed at taxpayers' expense."

"I support the five-year staggered auto registration program, but tax funds should not be used in an image-building campaign for a political running for office."

KIRKPATRICK THEFT
Furnace parts valued at about $120 were stolen from a furnace in a vacant apartment at 3001 Kirkpatrick Homes, police were told Thursday. A door had been forced open. Housing authority officials reported a cook stove worth $147 had previously been stolen from the same apartment.

When you consider this surplus situation in the light of the Governor's Cost Control Task Force Report, it's clear that reallocation of gasoline sales tax revenues from the general fund to the road fund can be accomplished with no economic dislocation whatever.

"If the State saves only $200 million of the $500 million recommended by the task force, the cost of this reallocation will be more than covered without dipping into the gaily surplus I have described."

Reboard buses in 2 hours Deadline on Apartments are entered Effective today, the Bi-State Development Agency will begin use of a revised transfer for 1979 passenger car system passengers.

Executive Director Barry M. Locke said that for the first time, passengers can make brief stops in their trips and use their 10-cent transfers to continue travel in the same direction during a two-hour period from issuance.

This unique "reboarding" privilege will allow expanded travel freedom and cost savings, Locke said.

Previously, passengers paid 50 cents, or two full fares, whenever reboarding.

With the expanded transfer system, they will now be able to make the same trip for only 35 cents. The reboarding privilege does not, however, allow reversal of direction for the return trip.

Today's revision in the transit system transfer program used presently is the first since the 1930s. It resulted from a bus operator's suggestion for increased passenger convenience.

Locke also noted that the "universal" transfer allows Bi-State drivers to concentrate attention on passenger safety and service, since they will no longer be required to explain and administer a complex transfer process.

In addition, dates and bus line names will no longer be printed on each transfer, saving Bi-State more than $51,400 in annual printing costs.

"We are pleased to provide this simplified, yet expanded transfer program," added Locke, "since everyone benefits from passengers and bus drivers, as well as taxpayers throughout the Bi-State region."

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon has issued a reminder that the deadline for receiving reassignment and special license number requests for 1979 passenger car registrations in Springfield is midnight Saturday, Sept. 30.

This is the only plate that will be issued for license renewals for the new multi-year, staggered-registration program during the next five years.

Stickers with up-to-date expiration dates will replace the former annual plate system.

Dixon has cautioned applicants to read instructions on the back of the pre-printed renewal form for the correct fee and expiration date of both the short and extended options before mailing registrations.

"Only the fees shown on the options will be accepted for processing so that we can put the staggered registration program into effect," Dixon said.

A young man was seen fleeing from an apartment building at 3458 Benton St., at 7:45 p.m. Sunday, after two apartments in the building were broken into. Nothing is known missing from either apartment, but locks were broken from the front doors at the apartment of Debra Skaggs and Becky Focht.

The latter said she entered the rear door to the apartment building's hallway and saw a young man run from her apartment, down the stairway and out the front door. He got into a light-colored two-door auto with a woman and they drove north on Benton. The woman has long dark hair, she said.

The victim then checked her apartment and found drawers in the apartment of the fish tank had been unplugged.

Based upon the description of the car and its occupants, police questioned one young man, but released him pending additional investigation.
